

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Linda J. Bishop
Phone: 215-249-0100, x146
Fax: 215-249-9657
Email: lbishop@pearlsbuck.org

[Hilltown, PA]

Distinctive Gifts & Unique Crafts
Unique, Handmade, One-Stop, Holiday Shopping at the Estate of the Pearl S. Buck House, a National Historic Landmark

Almost 50 juried artisans will participate this year in the 2017 Pearl S. Buck Holiday Craft Show. This year's event promises to be one of the finest holiday craft shows of its kind in Bucks and Montgomery Counties. Displayed in a boutique-style setting and running from Friday, November 24 through Sunday December 3, this juried craft show is open daily from 10 AM until 4 PM in the Cultural Center (Pearl S. Buck's historic barn) at 520 Dublin Rd., Perkasie, PA. 18944. Admission is $4. Enjoy luncheon sandwiches, soup, beverages, and desserts in the Craft Café downstairs in the Barn. Handicapped accessible – please, no strollers.

Sponsored by the Pearl S. Buck Volunteer Association, this year's Craft Show will offer a wide range of the region's best holiday merchandise – from tree ornaments, Santas, snowmen, handcrafted jewelry and fine art to distinctive antique furniture, woven arts, boutique clothing, homemade jams, and food specialties.

Shoppers may attend both the craft show and also purchase tickets to tour the beautifully decorated Pearl S. Buck House (a National Historic Landmark) for the 39th annual Festival of Trees, ongoing through December 30. Come see what this year's designers and decorators have created for your enjoyment! All proceeds benefit the many humanitarian programs of Pearl S. Buck International.

Pearl S. Buck was the first American woman to win both the Pulitzer and the Nobel Prize for literature. Both literary prizes and a special photo exhibit of The Forgotten Americans are on exhibit during the Craft Show and the Holiday Festival of Trees. For more information and times, please visit the Pearl S. Buck International website at www.pearlsbuck.org/events or call 215.249.0100.

Pearl S. Buck International® provides opportunities to explore and appreciate other cultures, builds better lives for children around the globe and promotes the legacy of our founder by preserving and interpreting her National Historic Landmark Home.

- END -