Laura Lomax Receives Pioneer Award from the Bucks County NAACP

Laura Lomax, Vice President of Programs at Pearl S. Buck International, received the Pioneer Award from the Bucks County NAACP at the Bucks County NAACP Freedom Fund Banquet on Saturday, October 20, 2018 at Parx East in Bensalem, PA. She was recognized for her talent and tenacity in blazing a path to success and for exemplifying the NAACP vision of building strong and inclusive communities through leadership.

Also at the event, Ms. Lomax received a citation from the Pennsylvania House of Representatives recognizing that, "She stands as a role model worthy of emulation." Congratulations from the Senate of Pennsylvania, affirmatively stated that, "She is a shining example of community spirit whose many contributions are worthy of deep gratitude and respect."

Ms. Lomax oversees education programs and intercultural initiatives at Pearl S. Buck International. One of the most innovative and popular education programs she leads is Welcome Workplace, a model for establishing sustainable diversity and inclusion for schools and organizations.

Laura earned a BA in Anthropology from New York University and a Foundations Certification from the Intercultural Communications Institute. She is licensed as a Qualified Administrator of the Intercultural Development Inventory assessment and certified as a trainer by the Emotional Intelligence and Diversity Institute.
